

Deputy Principal

Re-advertised

Roseville College is an Anglican school for girls where every student in Kindergarten to Year 12 is known and valued in a caring Christian environment, and is prepared with an education that serves her for life.

The Deputy Principal supports the Principal in strategic and day to day leadership, working alongside the Principal to implement the School's vision and values – consistent with its Strategic Direction: Realising Purpose – in the daily operation of the College. The Deputy collaborates with other College leaders to develop and maintain whole school practices and policies. As a Christian leader, the Deputy positively influences the culture of learning and wellbeing, for the benefit of the whole College community. The position commences Term 1, 2019.

To be successful in the role, you are, personally and professionally, an upstanding role model, who is aligned with the College values and has a strong commitment to girls' education. As an exceptional educator and leader, you exemplify continuous development, and encourage others likewise. You have the capacity and confidence to engage and inspire students, staff, parents and the wider community, relating to others with integrity and compassion. Importantly, you have proven, successful experiences in Christian, educational, pastoral and strategic leadership.
